jirrickha at the Seaman's Host last night and drove in to the Winchell Market to look for a washerwoman. On paying the man off he gave him a clean Mexican dollar and he offered a few coppers in change. He had only used the jirrickha about once an hour, and demanded his dollar he again when he found he was only going to get a few coppers, but he denied he had received it. A constable came and seized the defendant, and although he protested he only had a few cents, a clean dollar found in his pocket, house, and another wrapped up in paper.

LOSS OF THE "FORWARD HO."
(Lenny Barretto)

A naval court of enquiry was held this morning (Dec. 29), at H. R. M.'s Consul into the loss of the Foreward Ho. The testimony of Captain Wade and the mate, Cunningham, was substantially the same, has already appeared in print, so far as circumstances attending the wreck, the evidence as to the treatment received by the hands of the Japanese and Indians.

and we append the Captain's statement relating thereto, which was corroborated by the whole of the crew. Captain Wade answered to questions put by the court, that they landed near a small fishing village called Onoi, and immediately made inquiries for the head man. When the official arrived he was asked for boats or other assistance, but positively refused to give any. The remainder is best told in Captain Wade's own words. He said:

"They did not offer to render us assistance to get to Hakodati or Yokohama. They took us to a small village near Misaki on the Friday. I think they would have taken us on Wednesday, but they wanted me to sign some papers making the way open to the Americans. I refused to do this."

over to men, but because I would not, they said they would keep us there. I was not to be surprised at this, for I had been told that this was an official from Minko. When he arrived at Minko we were quartered, and being placed in one room and the remainder in another with no roof. Minko an appointment to be sent to Hakodate or Yokohama and was positively refused the offer, and was stamping his foot. The Japanese boys following the ship acting as interpreters told not to go back to the office again and would be sorry for it. We were detained at Minko fifteen days, till about the middle of December, and then came down in the coast steamers. I communicated the result to Yokohama by telegram to or four times. I went and showed Japanese officials the telegrams. They me they would not let me go unless I sign the paper making over the wreck to the U.S. An interpreter arrived from Morioka, and we then better treated and had more liberty. Before that we were not allowed to go about without police attendance. We were not allowed to go further than 500 yards. We were not supplied with clothing and the food was both bad and insufficient. Some of the passengers had a few dollars and I had some sovereigns, so we bought some food. The treatment in this respect was better after the ship came from Morioka.

The decision of the Court was as follows:

The Court after having carefully considered the statements of the master, officer and crew of the British barque Forward finds:—

- 1.—That the British barque Forward of Liverpool, official number 5560, Edw. Wade, master, was entirely disabled by the succession of gales of wind between the October and the 23rd November 1891 on a voyage from Kobe to Portland, gon.
- 2.—That the vessel was lost by striking on the rocks six miles south of Mizen.

3.—That every endeavour was made to save the vessel, but that she ultimately

4.—That no blame attaches to the master or crew, every exertion having been made to save the vessel; and that the praise is due to Mr Edward Wade, master, for his conduct under these trying circumstances.

5.—That the certificates of the master and mate are now respectively returned.

The Court cannot let this opportunity pass.

pass without deprecating the industry attention, shown to the urgent wants of the shipwrecked crew of the vessel by the officials of Onond and Minko.

Given under our hands at H. B. M.'s
Consulate this 27th day of December, 1871.

J. J. ENSLEY,
H. B. M.'s Acting Consul and President of the Onond and Minko.

New York, Dec. 5.—The Herald's Daily
special says: It is generally believed that the present crisis is the most impor-

one in which the land movement of the peohas clinched with the Government, and have thus far successfully resisted all strength of coercion. It is a startling that two-thirds of the rents are not be-paid and that the tenants have no inten-
of paying them without a heavy reduc-which the landlords refuse. The I

Courts are very slow. The Act is no remedy for the trouble. The Government did not expect this delay, believing that after a few decisions, landlords and tenants would settle between themselves. It is this: The Government have

The press did not wonder at the strenuous efforts of the Land League while permitted to be the only way; but, now that force is used to suppress this disorder continues, and the country is experiencing a reign of terror, especially in the eastern counties where the Assizes have been adjourned. The Jews speak of the progress of crime. The threatening letters and intimations are on the increase, and the fearful crime of arson is much more frequent. We are not alarmists and do not predict civil war, but certainly the situation is very serious.

The Herald's opinion, expressed some time ago, that Parnell's arrest was a mistake, is being every day vindicated.

The New York Herald says the United States naval vessel which was ordered to Panama to await the arrival there of Commissioners Prescott and Blaine, who are proceeding to Peru and Chile, has already reached Panama, so there will be no delay.

Zanzibar, Dec. 5.—On the 3rd inst. Capt. Brownrigg, of the British man-of-war Le Lion, with 10 men in a pinnace, attempted to capture a dhow, flying a French color, loaded with slaves. The Arab crew resisted, but were killed by the British.

One man was severely and two slightly wounded. The dhow escaped.
